INTRODUCTION

▲ CUATRO TORRES BUSINESS AREA
MADRID

In Spain, you'll find extraordinary infrastructure, including unique venues with a surprising location, history, environment and gastronomic options.

A leading global standard for Meetings and Events Tourism (MICE). Proof of this is its fourth place in the top 10 in the 2018 ICCA Report (International Congress and Conventions Association), with Madrid and Barcelona in a prominent position. Top quality is guaranteed: A team of professionals at the Spain Convention Bureau (SCB) is at your disposal for free advice and guidance. They will be responsible for putting you in contact with each of the local congress venues associated with the SCB network and provide you with all the information you require.

Spain also has up-to-date transport infrastructure. With over 30 airports with connections to the most important cities in the world, an extensive railway network, including high-speed trains (HST) and important cruise ports, those attending your event will be able to move about the country easily and comfortably. We also have one of the largest and most up-to-date road networks in Europe.

Spain features a great variety of MICE destinations. They are all equipped with modern facilities, the latest technology and the versatility required to stage events of different sizes. You have a choice of over 50 congress and conference centres, large trade fair centres and hotels with excellent facilities for holding all kinds of events.

To give your meeting a special atmosphere, there are numerous options available in historical buildings like palaces and castles. You can also use cultural and artistic premises, including some of Spain's most iconic museums, auditoriums, theatres and galleries. Modern architecture is another of our great attractions, with quite a number of buildings by highly prominent designers and architects.

There are venues with international prestige like the Santiago Bernabéu and Camp Nou sports stadiums, with everything you need to create the unique environment you were looking for. Or you could go for a distinct touch of Spanish culture and its traditions in extraordinary venues like wineries, gastronomic centres and tablaos flamencos (Flamenco clubs).

In the wide-ranging and renovated hotel accommodation in Spain you'll find all you need for your event. There are about 15,000 hotel establishments and 1,500,000 beds, as well as an excellent selection of 4- and 5-star hotels. Special mention should go to the Parador Hotels, unique establishments located in beautiful natural or historic surroundings.

Spain has so much to offer: excellent professionals with proven experience in the MICE sector, a great variety of destinations and comprehensive facilities to guarantee the satisfaction of those participating in your events. If you choose Spain you won't go wrong.

Hold your meeting or conference in one of Antoni Gaudí's masterpieces, the genius who was the greatest exponent of Modernist architecture in Barcelona. The series of rolling, stone facades, the great balconies and the roof-top structures are just some of the distinctive features of this building which have made it one of the city's foremost tourist attractions.

The interior features unique halls and rooms decorated with Gaudí's winding forms. They are multi-purpose and can be combined to suit your requirements.

For example, the Sala Gaudí has direct access to one of the building's terraces and has an open area which is ideal for any event.

Your guests will have an opportunity to complement their stay in Barcelona with an exclusive tour of the building, available in nine languages. A specialist guide will show them every detail of this iconic building, adapting the tour of the rooms and the spectacular rooftop to the participants' timetable and their interests.

LABORAL CIUDAD DE LA CULTURA, GIJÓN

An excellent refurbishment has turned the former Universidad Laboral de Gijón (Asturias) into a huge, gardened, architectural complex ideal for culture, training and entrepreneurial innovation.

This extraordinary limestone and granite building has multi-purpose rooms for staging all types of business, cultural and social activities and events.

Special mention should go to the "Sala de Pinturas" or Paintings Hall, decorated with a fresco wall painting (by the artist Enrique Segura) inspired by the Sistine Chapel, the magnificent church with an elliptic dome, the theatre and the Corinthian Patio. There are also a number of medium-sized rooms, as well as the Auditorium and the Clock Tower.

The excellent location in a natural environment very near the sea and several golf courses makes it a fantastic option for incentive travel and team building courses.

You can organise a personalised tour of one of the world's most important galleries, given the quality and variety of its exhibits, and located right in the centre of Madrid. With paintings by Velázquez, Rembrandt, Goya and other masters, the museum gives you a chance to turn your corporate event into an unforgettable cultural milestone.

A reception in the spectacular Sala de las Musas, surrounded by Roman sculptures? A conference in the modern Auditorium in the Jerónimos Building, the museum's extension designed by the architect Rafael Moneo? Whatever your requirements, you will always find a space which can be adapted to what you have in mind. For small meetings and work groups, you have the versatile Conference Room.

When the museum closes to the public, you can invite your guests to a private tour of the permanent and temporary collections.

PICASSO MUSEUM, MÁLAGA

The capital of the Costa del Sol, the birthplace of Pablo Picasso, dedicated this museum to him and there are 233 works from the whole of his artistic career on exhibition. It is right in the historical town centre, in the Buenavista Palace, a surprising Renaissance building with a beautiful, porticoed central patio.

A guided tour behind closed doors, an art workshop and a gala dinner in the patio are just some of the possibilities available in this cultural institution dedicated to the genius who changed the course of Art History. Even the finest details are important, so you should always consult with their team of professionals who will help you create an unforgettable experience.

CASA LIS ART NOUVEAU MUSEUM, SALAMANCA

This monumental city in Castile-León has a wide ranging cultural offering, rooted not only in tradition but also facing the challenges of modern life. One of the most unusual museums is the one situated in the Casa de Lis, the first the challenges of modern life in Salamanca. It has beautiful, large stained-glass windows, an exquisite design and exhibits an incredible collection of decorative art from the end of the 19th and beginning of the 20th centuries. The extraordinary porcelain dolls, Chryselephantine sculptures and other unique works will take you back in time.

The spectacular terrace overlooking the Roman bridge is the ideal location for a reception for up to 150 people. You need to book early to enjoy the last rays of sunshine reflecting off the stained glass on the facade, an unforgettable experience.

CRISTÓBAL BALENCIAGA MUSEUM, GETARIA

Dedicated to one of the 20th century's most influential fashion designers, the Balenciaga Museum is a modern building adjoining the Aldamar Palace, up on a hill overlooking Getaria (Basque Country/Euskadi). It is less than an hour's drive from the airports of Bilbao, Vitoria-Gasteiz and Donostia-San Sebastián.

Here you'll find the ideal facilities for staging all kinds of events in an avant-garde environment. Three of the areas are used exclusively for events: the loft, ideal for small get-togethers, four bright classrooms and an auditorium for holding press conferences, congresses and courses.

The heart of the museum is in the Atrium, a large open, multipurpose area for holding gala dinners, displays, product presentations and corporate lunches.

TEATRO REAL, MADRID

Standing opposite the Royal Palace, this historic two-centuries-old building is one of Madrid's most iconic cultural symbols. This unique venue, decorated with art works from National Heritage and the Prado Museum, will provide any corporate event held there with great prestige and solemnity.

The functionality and versatility of the classic halls, in combination or separately, make it possible to include several different activities. The modern Sala Gayerre is a perfect complement for the Café de Palacio annex. The former dance hall and the spectacular

Sala Principal are available for private congresses, providing the artistic programme allows this.

The Teatro Real has a team of experts to help you create an unforgettable experience, which could include lyrical recitals and a tour of the theatre's public and artistic features.
